Corporate Entity: Myles International Solutions Limited (RC 1687677)

Quality Management System: ISO 9001:2015 Certified

Operational Base: Port Harcourt, Rivers State, Nigeria Effective Date: November 16, 2026

1. Acceptance of Terms & Corporate Identity

Welcome to www.myleslimited.com (the "Website"), owned and operated by Myles International Solutions Limited ("MISL", "we", "us", or "our"), a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria with Corporate Affairs Commission registration number RC 1687677 and registered head office at Plot 34, Road 6, Freedom Estate, Rupokwu, Port Harcourt, Rivers State, Nigeria.

By accessing, browsing, downloading materials from, or submitting inquiries through this Website, you ("User", "you", or "your") acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be legally bound by these Terms and Conditions ("Terms"), together with our Website Privacy Policy & Data Protection Statement and all applicable Nigerian laws and regulations. If you are accessing this Website on behalf of a corporation, International Oil Company (IOC), National Oil Company (NOC), Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM), consortium partner, or subcontractor, you represent and warrant that you possess the legal authority to bind that entity to these Terms. If you do not agree to these Terms, you must discontinue use of the Website immediately.

2. Purpose of the Website & Non-Binding Commercial Information

This Website serves as an informational and corporate gateway presenting MISL's capabilities as an integrated energy solutions provider under our guiding principle: "Global OEM Precision. Nigerian Execution Excellence."

- No Contractual Offer: All technical specifications, solution pillar descriptions, service capabilities, datasheets, and corporate brochures published on this Website are provided solely for general informational and pre-qualification purposes. Nothing on this Website constitutes a binding commercial offer, tender bid, engineering guarantee, or warranty of product availability.
- Formal Contract Requirement: Any supply of OEM equipment, flare gas recovery systems, fiscal metering packages, composite piping, severe-service valves, safety systems, or engineering/workshop services by MISL shall be governed exclusively by a separate, duly executed Master Services Agreement (MSA), Purchase Order, Consortium Agreement, or formal written contract signed by authorized officers of MISL.

- Technical Specifications Subject to Change: Engineering standards and OEM product specifications referenced on this Website are subject to continuous manufacturer improvement and site-specific engineering sizing. Users must not rely solely on Website summaries for front-end engineering design (FEED) or safety-critical operational decisions without formal written engineering verification from MISL.

3. Intellectual Property Rights

All content, architecture, design, text, graphics, photographs, technical diagrams, corporate slogans, downloadable policies, and software code comprising this Website are the exclusive intellectual property of MISL or its licensors and are protected under the Nigerian Copyright Act, Trademarks Act, and international intellectual property treaties.

- MISL Proprietary Marks: The name "Myles International Solutions Limited", the acronym "MISL", our corporate logo, and the tagline "Global OEM Precision. Nigerian Execution Excellence." are proprietary trade names and marks of MISL.
- Third-Party OEM Trademarks: References to global OEM technologies, standards, or accreditation bodies (including ISO 9001:2015) remain the trademarks and intellectual property of their respective owners and are used strictly to identify authorized technical solution domains and quality accreditations.
- Permitted Use & Restrictions: You are granted a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to view and download materials from this Website solely for internal vendor evaluation, procurement due diligence, or legitimate business correspondence with MISL. You may not reproduce, modify, scrape, republish, distribute, reverse-engineer, frame, or commercially exploit any Website content without MISL's prior written consent.

4. Acceptable Use & Cybersecurity Obligations

In alignment with MISL's Information Security Policy and the Nigerian Cybercrimes (Prohibition, Prevention, etc.) Act, you agree to use this Website strictly for lawful corporate and professional purposes. You shall not:

- Attempt to gain unauthorized access to any portion of the Website, its Laravel backend architecture, administrative portals, hosting servers, or connected databases;
- Introduce viruses, trojans, worms, ransomware, logic bombs, or any malicious or technologically harmful code;
- Conduct automated data scraping, vulnerability scanning, penetration testing, denial-of-service (DoS/DDoS) attacks, or excessive automated queries against our infrastructure;
- Submit false, misleading, defamatory, or fraudulent pre-qualification records, tender inquiries, or impersonate any upstream operator, OEM, or regulatory official.

5. Counterparty Integrity, Anti-Bribery & Ethical Compliance

MISL enforces zero tolerance for corruption, bribery, fraud, and regulatory non-compliance across all digital and physical operations. Any party submitting commercial inquiries, OEM agency proposals, consortium expressions of interest, or subcontractor pre-qualification documents through this Website acknowledges and agrees to abide by MISL's core governance policies:

MISL Governance Pillar	Binding Obligation on Website Counterparties & Users
Anti-Bribery & Anti-Corruption (ABAC)	Counterparties warrant strict compliance with the Nigerian Corrupt Practices and Other Related Offences Act, the EFCC Act, the UK Bribery Act 2010, and the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA). No facilitation payments, kickbacks, or improper inducements may be offered or solicited via any MISL channel.
Nigerian Content (NOGICD Act)	All local execution, workshop calibration, and consortium participation inquiries are subject to verification under the Nigerian Oil and Gas Industry Content Development (NOGICD) Act and NCDMB guidelines.
Health, Safety & Environment (HSE)	Any subsequent site mobilization, workshop inspection, or field engineering arising from Website communications is strictly governed by MISL's zero-harm HSE and Logistics/Travel Safety standards.
Whistleblower & Ethics Reporting	Users and stakeholders may report suspected ethical breaches, safety violations, or policy non-compliance in good faith through MISL's confidential reporting channels without fear of retaliation.

6. User Submissions, Confidentiality & Data Protection

When you submit inquiries, technical specifications, CVs, or vendor onboarding documents via our Website forms or designated email addresses:

- Accuracy of Information: You warrant that all information and supporting corporate or technical credentials provided are true, accurate, complete, and non-infringing.
- Non-Confidentiality of Unsolicited Commercial Ideas: Unless covered by a formal bilateral Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) executed prior to submission, general commercial inquiries or unsolicited proposals submitted via public web forms shall not create a fiduciary obligation on MISL, though MISL handles all prospective client and partner communications with strict professional discretion.
- Personal Data Protection: All personal data collected through this Website is processed strictly in accordance with the Nigeria Data Protection Act (NDPA) 2023, the NDPC GAID 2025, and MISL's Website Privacy Policy & Data Protection Statement.

7. Third-Party Links & External Resources

This Website may contain hyperlinks to external websites operated by global OEM partners, regulatory bodies (such as NUPRC, NCDMB, CAC, or NDPC), or industry standards organizations. Such links are provided solely for convenience and reference. MISL does not control, endorse, or assume any responsibility for the content, availability, cybersecurity, or privacy practices of third-party websites. Accessing external websites is entirely at your own risk.

8. Disclaimer of Warranties

To the maximum extent permitted under Nigerian law, this Website and all content, information, and materials made available through it are provided on an "AS IS" and "AS AVAILABLE" basis without warranties of any kind, whether express, implied, or statutory. MISL expressly disclaims all implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular engineering purpose, non-infringement, accuracy, completeness, or uninterrupted, error-free availability of the Website.

9. Limitation of Liability & Indemnification

- Limitation of Liability: To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Myles International Solutions Limited, its directors, officers, shareholders, employees, consortium partners, and accredited technical subcontractors shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages—including loss of profits, loss of business opportunity, loss of data, business interruption, or procurement delays—arising out of or in connection with your access to, use of, or inability to use this Website or reliance on any informational content published herein.
- Indemnification: You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless MISL and its officers, directors, employees, and affiliates from and against any claims, liabilities, damages, losses, regulatory penalties, or legal expenses arising out of your breach of these Terms, misuse of the Website, infringement of intellectual property rights, or submission of fraudulent or unlawful materials.

10. Suspension, Termination & Severability

MISL reserves the right, in its sole discretion and without prior notice, to restrict, suspend, or terminate access to all or any part of this Website for maintenance, security upgrades, or in response to any suspected breach of these Terms. If any provision of these Terms is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

11. Governing Law & Dispute Resolution

These Terms and Conditions, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with this Website or its subject matter, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

In the event of any dispute arising out of these Terms, the parties shall first seek an amicable resolution through good-faith executive negotiation within thirty (30) days of written notice. Failing amicable settlement, the dispute shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in Port Harcourt, Rivers State, Nigeria, in accordance with the Arbitration and Mediation Act 2023, before a sole arbitrator appointed by mutual agreement, with the English language as the language of arbitration. Nothing in this clause prevents MISL from seeking urgent injunctive relief in a court of competent jurisdiction to protect its intellectual property or cybersecurity infrastructure.

12. Amendments & Official Contact Details

MISL reserves the right to revise or update these Terms and Conditions at any time to reflect evolving legal, regulatory, or operational requirements. Updated Terms take effect immediately upon publication on this Website with a revised Effective Date. For legal, compliance, or corporate inquiries regarding these Terms, please contact:
